B. U. Professor Dies

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. (P)—

Thomas W. Palmer Jr., 38, associate professor at Boston University, died in White Plains Hospital yesterday.

Mr. Palmer was taken to the hospital with a pulmonary condition a week ago while visiting his parents' home at Scarsdale, N. Y.

Born in Chile while his father was U. S. consular agent there, Mr. Palmer was director of undergraduate studies at Yale from 1949 to 1951, then served in Brazil with the Joint Brazilian-American Economic Commission.

He was with the Central Intelligence Agency in Washington before joining the Boston University faculty in 1954.
